

THUAS aims to be leading in COIL in Europe (Institutional Plan). COIL is seen as part of Internationalisation at Home, it is purposeful and aimed at all students. THUAS is actively strengthening its international leadership role in COIL (international policy plan (24-29)). THUAS is co-founder of COILective NL, a network dedicated to knowledge exchange of COIL within the Netherlands, where improving quality is a strategic objective.

STUDENTS

- A well-designed educational practice
- International collaborative learning in the curriculum
- Recognition of credits
- Workplace preparation

LECTURERS

- Support for designing COIL
- Finding and matching potential partners
- Time for development of COIL
- Professional development opportunities
- Recognition

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

- Developing relationships with international partners
- Sustainable international learning experience
- Educational and other support

STUDENTS

See COIL as a valuable international collaborative learning experience, leading to skill development and personal and professional growth.

LECTURERS

See COIL as a space for innovation, personal and professional growth, and international collaboration.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

See COIL as an instrument to achieve graduate outcomes and support international and interdisciplinary learning.

Stakeholders Needs

Stakeholders Outcomes

Support Processes

- Team Strategy
- FCI & PCI Connected
- Educational Developers
- IT Infrastructure

Global Learning

Research Group Global Learning shares research outputs and provides an academic foundation for continuous improvement.

Virtual Collaboration Community

Learning community for practioners and other stakeholders in COILective NL